

Mom always demanded the best. Finally, a place that meets her high standards.

With engaging activities and personalized care, we provide the best of everything for your mom (or dad) living with dementia. Your parent will love the bright, sun-filled rooms, delicious kosher food and inspired company of friendly peers. Plus our innovative programs and smart technologies will give you peace of mind that your loved one is living in the very best place – with the highest standards of care.

For excellent care, it's the One.

Call us to arrange a tour to see first-hand all the things we do, big and small, to help your loved one live the fullest life possible.
